North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS): Canada 2007

NAICS is a comprehensive system of categorizing businesses developed by the statistical agencies of Canada (Statistics Canada), the United States, and Mexico, to provide a common reporting standard for economic activity across North America. Its hierarchical structure consists of 20 Sectors, 102 Sub-Sectors, 324 Industry Groups, 718 Industries, and 928 National Industries. All licensed businesses have been assigned a NAICS National Industry code based on their primary business type or activity.

The bulk of the reporting in this document involves groupings of the 20 sectors. While many of the sector titles are self-explanatory, we have provided further clarification for the following sectors:

- Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services The main components include accounting, architecture, engineering, law, scientific, research, and related services.
- Business, Building, and Other Support Services This is a grouping of two sectors engaged in activities that support the day-to-day operations of other organizations, such as administration, travel, security, cleaning, and waste management.

Top three industries in the Construction sector in 2007:

- Residential Building Construction (345)
- Plumbing, Heating & Air-Conditioning Contractors (152)

In 2008, we will publish the Employment Profile, which will present employment information for all non-profit and government agencies operating in Saskatoon. It will provide a comprehensive view of employment, including a breakdown of employees by area and business sector.

New Business Survey

In 2007, new businesses were surveyed electronically to determine whether they used the services offered by the Business License Program, what improvements could be made to the services we offer, and whether there were other service opportunities that could be implemented. We received many supportive comments on our current services and several suggestions to improve the program. We would like to thank everyone who participated in the survey.

Saskatoon Business Directory

The Business License Program is developing an online business directory and all licensed businesses will be invited to participate. The directory will be accessible from the City of Saskatoon's website and will provide basic information about your business as well as a mapping component to direct users to your location.

Before the City can publish your information, we require your consent. Starting in January 2008, all business license renewal forms will include a consent form for the business directory. If you would like to participate in this directory, please complete the form and return it to our office with your business license renewal.

We anticipate the business directory will be operational by Fall 2008. If you have questions about the online business directory, call 975-7710 or email business.license@saskatoon.ca.

Information Requests
